Things To Do

- National Museum – a natural history, cultural history and art museum.
- Bloemfontein Zoo – one of the oldest zoos in South Africa where you can spot the Big Five and other primate species.
- Vredefort Dome – This is the biggest meteorite and oldest impact crater that geologists have yet found on Earth. It is called a dome because the rock layers were bent into the shape of an upside-down bowl 90km across by the impact.
- Naval Hill in Franklin Game Reserve – standing atop this geographic wonder, you are provided with an exquisite panoramic view of Bloemfontein.
- Shopping Malls – take the skywalk to shop at the adjacent Mimosa Mall where you'll find all the leading brands. Or visit the Loch Logan Waterfront – the largest shopping mall in central Africa located in the heart of Bloemfontein.
- The Sand du Plessis Theatre – unique in South African theatre architectural design, the theatre hosts symphonies, musicals, ballets, dramas, pantomimes and fashion shows.
